Club Closing

Our clubhouse is officially closing on October 12th! We have been most lucky to have the long and healthy summer we aspired for. In what has been a strange season for everyone, we wanted to thank members for adhering to the Covid precautions we set out. While the clubhouse will not be open during regular hours after the 12th, I will be in from time to time that first week and can serve drinks and keep the washrooms accessible when I am present.

Clay courts will remain open until around our first frost. After that, they may be closed roughly a week later, to prevent frost damage to the courts. The website will indicate when they've been closed. Our hard courts will remain open as long as possible - depending on the weather, we hope to keep some of the nets up until early November or longer! We will continue to ask members to use and respect the booking system to reserve courts, even once the clubhouse is closed. Though this will not be enforceable by staff, we ask that members honor each other's time.

RLTC Clothing

Our new clothing has arrived! Better late than never. Thank you to Louise Malhotra for her design input! We now have mens and womens t-shirts in a variety of sizes as well as hats available at the front desk. If you aren't able to make it in before the Club closes on October 12th, send us an email and I will be happy to arrange a time to meet next week to take a look at our new merchandise. These make great Thanksgiving, holiday & birthday presents...Just saying.

Lost and Found

See anything of yours here? If so, come and claim it now! We plan to donate away all uncollected items after October 15th.

Pietzo

A heartfelt thank you to our loyal morning maintenance worker, Pietzo Antic, who for 3 years came in almost every morning and prepared courts, cleaned grounds and tended to the garden. This year, more members than ever commented on the esthetics of our community club. Next week, Pietzo will be moving back to his homeland of Serbia. He has certainly left big shoes to fill. His kind nature, strong work ethic and green thumb will be sorely missed. Those present for this Friday's Round Robin will have a final chance to say goodbye. Best of luck, Pietzo!
